To the Hon Henry J Morgan Judge of the County Court of Lee County Your Orator William W Nichols humbly Complaining respectfully represents that one Jesse W Robinson on the 5.th day of June 1860 executed his certain promissory note signed with his signature whereby he promised and bound himself to pay by the 9.th day of November 1861. unto Edward L. Sizemore the sum of One hundred Dollars. And afterwards whilst the said note was wholly unpaid the said Sizemore assigned the same to I B Sizemore who transferred the same to Owen Sizemore who in October 1860 by an endorsement made on said promissory note which is herewith filed marked A. assigned the same to your Orator who is the holder and equitable owner thereof. He states that the said Robinson never paid the said Edward L.
Sizemore his assignee or transferee whether mediate or immediate the said sum of money or any part thereof And the same is now wholly due and owing from him the said Robinson -

Your Orator states that the said Robinson is a non-resident of Virginia but he owns a tract of land situated in the said County of Stote. The said tract of land is part of the farm which is occupied by the said Robinson and on which he resides. And that part which lies in Virginia. And contains by estimation acres. The object of this bill is to subject said land to a sufficiency thereof to the payment of said debt which is due and owing from him. And to effect this purpose he prays that the said lands be attached and proper process issue be.
